SOME "DROPPINGS" FROM THE EDITOR:

1. If I don't get re-elected its been fun. Thanks for your help. 2. We have sold about 120 tables so far JUST TO CLUB MEMBERS..way to go! 3. The auction we have been doing the past few months is getting to be very well participated in...much fun, lets keep it up! 4. Lets have some more show/tell types. 5. Remember, the only good camera is the one you are selling! 6. Be sure to read the insert from Don Tempel it seems like an interesting fun idea for the show this year.

PRESIDENT: DAVE STUDEBAKER, (206)-582-4878

BACKSIDE INFORMATION

It occurs to me that the Bellows should be making use of the backside of the news letter. From now on I am going to include an edited report on what transpired at our last regular meeting. We have about 140 members and only half of you are able to make it to our meetings. So, from now on, you will get an idea of what we do each month. This report would not be possible without the excellent minutes sent to me by Shirley.

PSPCS REGULAR MEETING DECEMBER 17, 1992

Attendance: 34 members and guests including Santa Claus who led the group in our Christmas gift exchange..this went very well with all gifts being of interest to someone. John Sparrow was the lucky person to get to pick from all the gifts.

Unfinished Business: Bob Kelly reviewed process for club election and received several nominations from the floor. He will present a final list at the Jan. meeting.

Bob Kelly also gave a show report..we have added 51 tables using the Green River Room for the first time. New closing time for the show is 5 pm. Free table to any member who wants to have a display (limit 20). There will be prizes. Hospitality room will be scaled back.

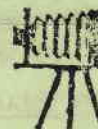

New Business: It was suggested we organize a phone tree and Mike Comstock volunteered to start one. Ray Kirilin announced he has his subminiatures on display in Bellevue Art Museum through January. Bill Kimber announced new "who we are and how you can join" form and new stationery letterhead for the club.

Auction, show & Tell: Four items were auctioned off with spirited bidding. Door prizes were won by Jim Passi and John Sparrow (John had a good night) Show and Tell was interesting but more show and tells would have made it even better! Fun was had by all..Ho Ho! Meeting adjourned at 9:14 for swap and sell until ten PM.
